Dubuque Water Works.

[From the Dubuque Times, July 28.]

The City Fathers having, with the assistance of the Mayor, who cast the deciding vote, passed the ordinance authorizing the construction of a system of water-works, the company who intend to erect the same propose to commence in earnest and show the world at large that they really mean business. Yesterday the articles of incorporation were prepared and filed for record, the capital stock being $300 000, payable in monthly installments of five per cent. The Board of Directors consists of John Thompson, Alexander Young, R. A. Babbage, M. S. Robinson, Wm. Andrews, Frank Yeager, J. K. Graves, Wm. H. Peabody, J. A. Rhomberg, T. C. Robinson and N. D. Cooley. The corporation is entitled "The Dubuque Water-works Company," and the articles provide for the election of a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. The regular election of officers will take place on the fifth of September, and the present board is made provisional until that time.

"Dubuque Water Works." Milwaukee Daily Sentinel, 30 July 1870. Nineteenth Century U.S. Newspapers, https://link.gale.com/apps/doc/GT3009113027/NCNP?u=roch18072_rbw&sid=NCNP&xid=6b0d1f76. Accessed 20 Dec. 2019.