

Los Angeles News.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1868.

Is it So?—We understand that a drove of hogs are frequently seen bathing in the water used for domestic purposes by the citizens of this city. The water now conducted through the pipes is obtained from a spring near the Jewish Cemetery, and persons allowing their hogs to wallow in it ought to be punished. We hope the city authorities will attend to the matter immediately.