

Los Angeles News.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1868.

LOSS OF THE CITY DAM.—This dam, which furnished the city with water, and was repaired at an expense of some three thousand dollars, was entirely swept away, and until it is repaired, will necessitate the revival of the water cart system which, a few years ago, was our only source of supply.