administration of such accounts, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 689

An act to add Section 1668 to the Vehicle Code, relating to fingerprinting, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1978. Filed with
Secretary of State September 11, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1668 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 1668. The department may provide fingerprint service to the general public. When such service is provided, the department shall charge a fee of not less than five dollars ($5) for each person fingerprinted.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Persons applying for certain positions in occupations governed by state regulation and licensing procedures require fingerprinting prior to obtaining such employment. Although the state requires such fingerprinting, there is no generally known fingerprint service offered by the state that is available to these persons. In order that the Department of Motor Vehicles can provide this service to the general public and meet the needs of persons who request fingerprint service at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 690

An act to amend Sections 1 and 3 of Chapter 261 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to public utilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1978. Filed with
Secretary of State September 11, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 261 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Section 1. The Legislature finds and declares that a special statute is required to prohibit the expansion of the Washington Water and Light Company, a private water corporation operating in an unincorporated area of Yolo County, wherein a community services district has been formed to, among other things, provide public water service. This act specifies the period when such expansion shall be prohibited.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of Chapter 261 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. No construction work, except as specified in Section 2 of this act, shall be done from the effective date of this act until January 1, 1980.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the voters in the recently formed community services district in east Yolo County may vote on the question of acquiring the facilities of the existing water corporation in the service area of the district before any extensive capital construction projects are undertaken, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

An act to repeal Article 2 (commencing with Section 725) of Chapter 1 of Division 2 of, and to repeal Section 8046 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to the Department of Fish and Game, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1978 Filed with
Secretary of State September 11, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2 (commencing with Section 725) of Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 8046 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Any funds collected pursuant to Section 8046 of the Fish and Game Code and remaining in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund after the Marine Research Committee has been abolished is hereby appropriated to the Department of Fish and Game to be used for financing research in the development of commercial fisheries of the Pacific Ocean and of marine products susceptible of being made available to the people of California.
