Amending the Charter of the New Haven Water Company.

Resolved by this Assembly: SECTION 1. The New Haven Water Company is hereby authorized and empowered, from time to time, to increase its capital stock to a sum not exceeding one million dollars, to be subscribed and paid for under such regulations as the directors shall provide.

SEC. 2. Said New Haven Water Company is also hereby authorized and empowered to issue its bonds to an amount not exceeding, at any time, one-half the sum actually expended in the construction or purchase of their works, and not exceeding, in the whole, including those already issued, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars; which bonds, in the making, issuing, registering, canceling, and securing by mortgage thereof, and in all other respects shall be subject to the provisions of the amendment to said company's charter, relating to the issuing of its bonds, passed May session, 1856.

SEC. 3. All provisions of said company's charter inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, and this resolution may be altered or repealed by the general assembly.

Approved, June 2, 1871.

Concerning certain Trust Funds for the Mohegan Indians.

Whereas, Sarah L. Huntington of Norwich, on the twenty-sixth day of August, A.D. 1833, deposited with the Norwich Savings Society the sum of one hundred and eighty-three  $\frac{24}{100}$  dollars, in her own name, in trust for the Mohegan Indians, which on the first day of January, A.D. 1871, amounted to the sum of nine hundred and eight  $\frac{80}{100}$  dollars, and whereas the said Sarah L. Huntington has deceased without making any disposition of said trust funds: and whereas William Williams, Esq., late of Norwich, deceased, in and by his last will and testament, did bequeath to Henry R. Bond of New London, the sum of five hundred dollars to be by him deposited in the Norwich Savings Society, in connection with said fund deposited by said Sarah L. Huntington, the whole to be by him held in trust for the benefit of the Mohegan tribe of Indians, and the income of the whole fund to
