AMENDING THE CHARTER OF THE NEW MILFORD WATER COMPANY.

Resolved by this Assembly: That section nine of the charter of The New Milford Water Company, approved June 17, 1873, is hereby amended to read as follows: The said company shall have full power and is hereby authorized and empowered, under the provisions of this charter, to construct, repair, and maintain such reservoirs as they may deem expedient or necessary; to construct dams across, repair, or maintain a dam or dams across such streams as they may deem expedient or necessary; and to take such land or lands, estates, brook or brooks, and spring or springs, as they may deem expedient and necessary; and to hire or rent any water, springs, or works, and to construct, repair, and maintain such pipes, canals, or aque-ducts as may be now or may hereafter become necessary or convenient for the conveyance of water to such points as they may desire in or near said village of New Milford. The said company shall be liable to pay all the damages that shall be sustained by any person or persons, corporation or corporations, in their property or estate, by the taking of any land, or real estate as aforesaid, or the laying or building of any pipes, aqueducts, reservoirs, dams, or other works for the purpose of this act; and if at any time it shall appear that any damage has occurred or is likely to occur to any person or persons, corporation or corporations, by the reason of taking their land or estates for the purposes of this act, or in construction of the works of said company, and such persons or corporations have not agreed with said company for such damage, land, or estate, the said company, persons, or corporations may apply to the superior court of Litchfield county, or to any judge of the superior court, who may by law judge the parties, causing reasonable notice, or such notice as any judge of said court may prescribe, to be given to the adverse party of such application, and thereupon said superior court or such judge, upon finding that it is expedient and necessary to take the property, easements, rights, and estates described in such application, shall appoint three disinterested, judicious persons (any vacancies which may occur in said number to be filled by said court or judge), who shall, after reasonable notice to the parties, assess just damages, if any, to the respective owners or parties interested in the premises so required and taken for the purposes of this act, which assessment shall be in writing under the hand of such persons, and shall be returned with the application to the clerk of said superior court, who shall record it, and said company shall pay to said owner or parties the damage assessed, and when so paid may enter upon the premises, and may proceed to the construction of said works; or, in case the owners or parties aforesaid cannot then be ascertained, shall pay the same within thirty days to the treasurer of the county of Litchfield, to be by him paid to such person or persons as said court shall direct.

Approved, March 15, 1897.
