

Laying the Pipe.

The Chester Steam Power Company have begun the work of laying pipes on the streets, starting out from the works of the Chester Electric Light and Power Company on Third ~~street~~ and running up Market street. James Platt, formerly engineer at Denis' mill, is superintending the work.
