THE NEW ORLEANS BULLETIN.

VOLUME II—NO. 446. NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1875. PRICE—FIVE CENTS.

ON DIT.

The Louis-Candy Shooting.

Death of Louis.

Ahmed Louis, who was shot by one Oliver Candy, was laid to rest yesterday morning, at 11 A.M., in St. Louis Cemetery, New Orleans.

The only person who saw the affair was a man who lived near the scene of the occurrence, who says that Louis was single, and that he did not know him well. The man says that Candy was shot because he had been seen in the company of a man named Louis, who had been shot before. The man says that Candy was shot because he had been seen in the company of a man named Louis, who had been shot before. The man says that Candy was shot because he had been seen in the company of a man named Louis, who had been shot before.

The Assessment Investigation.

The Statements of the Parties.

On the 11th instant, there was a meeting at the office of the Assessment Investigation Committee, at which the following statements were made:

Louis: I was shot because I had been seen in the company of a man named Louis, who had been shot before.

Candy: I was shot because I had been seen in the company of a man named Louis, who had been shot before.

The machine is not yet健全 in the city, which gives us an advantage in the contest. The machine is not yet健全 in the city, which gives us an advantage in the contest.