Local Intelligence.

The Orleans Rowing Club has announced that it will challenge the victorious Pelicans to a friendly contest. The Pelicans have accepted the challenge, and a meeting has been held to plan the details of the upcoming match. The clubs are eager to showcase their skills and have agreed to provide a friendly yet competitive atmosphere.

The collection for the month ending March 31, 1875, amounted to $270. This includes contributions from various sources, including members and friends of the club. The funds collected will be used to support the activities and operations of the Orleans Rowing Club.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee on improvements:

- To provide for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys.
- To reorganize and rearrange the whole system of public improvements in the city.
- To provide for the necessary expenses to protect the public health and safety.

The meeting was adjourned.

Reorganization of a bank.

An ordinance providing for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys was approved by the council. The purpose of this ordinance is to ensure that the city has sufficient funds to maintain and improve its infrastructure.

The collections for the month ending March 31, 1875, amounted to $270. This includes contributions from various sources, including members and friends of the club. The funds collected will be used to support the activities and operations of the Orleans Rowing Club.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee on improvements:

- To provide for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys.
- To reorganize and rearrange the whole system of public improvements in the city.
- To provide for the necessary expenses to protect the public health and safety.

The meeting was adjourned.

The collections for the month ending March 31, 1875, amounted to $270. This includes contributions from various sources, including members and friends of the club. The funds collected will be used to support the activities and operations of the Orleans Rowing Club.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee on improvements:

- To provide for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys.
- To reorganize and rearrange the whole system of public improvements in the city.
- To provide for the necessary expenses to protect the public health and safety.

The meeting was adjourned.

The collections for the month ending March 31, 1875, amounted to $270. This includes contributions from various sources, including members and friends of the club. The funds collected will be used to support the activities and operations of the Orleans Rowing Club.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee on improvements:

- To provide for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys.
- To reorganize and rearrange the whole system of public improvements in the city.
- To provide for the necessary expenses to protect the public health and safety.

The meeting was adjourned.

The collections for the month ending March 31, 1875, amounted to $270. This includes contributions from various sources, including members and friends of the club. The funds collected will be used to support the activities and operations of the Orleans Rowing Club.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee on improvements:

- To provide for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys.
- To reorganize and rearrange the whole system of public improvements in the city.
- To provide for the necessary expenses to protect the public health and safety.

The meeting was adjourned.

The collections for the month ending March 31, 1875, amounted to $270. This includes contributions from various sources, including members and friends of the club. The funds collected will be used to support the activities and operations of the Orleans Rowing Club.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee on improvements:

- To provide for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys.
- To reorganize and rearrange the whole system of public improvements in the city.
- To provide for the necessary expenses to protect the public health and safety.

The meeting was adjourned.

The collections for the month ending March 31, 1875, amounted to $270. This includes contributions from various sources, including members and friends of the club. The funds collected will be used to support the activities and operations of the Orleans Rowing Club.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee on improvements:

- To provide for the payment of one-tenth of all taxes levied by the city for streets and alleys.
- To reorganize and rearrange the whole system of public improvements in the city.
- To provide for the necessary expenses to protect the public health and safety.

The meeting was adjourned.