AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE BOSCAWEN AQUEDUCT CORPORATION.

[Approved July 4, 1827. Acts, vol. 24, p. 179.]

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That James West, Benjamin Morrill, Joseph Chadwick and Worcester Webster, and their associates and successors, be, and they hereby are, incorporated and made a body corporate and politic by the name of the Boscawen Aqueduct corporation, and in that name may sue and be sued, prosecute and defend to final judgment and execution: And shall be and hereby are invested with all the powers and privileges, which by law are incident to corporations of a similar nature.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That the said James West and Benjamin Morrill may call a meeting of said corporation, by posting up, at some public place in said Boscawen, a notice for that purpose, four days before said day of meeting; at which meeting said proprietors may choose a clerk, who shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of the duties of his office; and may also agree upon the method of calling future meetings; and may at the same or at any subsequent meeting elect such officers, and make and establish such rules and regulations for assessing and collecting the assessments on the shares in said corporation as to them shall seem necessary and convenient; provided that such rules and regulations be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this State.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That said corporation may by deed take, hold and enjoy, all such real estate as may be conveyed to them, and may be necessary and convenient to them in laying down the said Aqueduct, and may take, hold and enjoy personal estate not exceeding one thousand dollars in amount, and the same may sell and dispose of at pleasure.
