AN ACT TO INCORPORATE A COMPANY BY THE NAME OF THE CLAREMONT AQUEDUCT ASSOCIATION.

[Approved December 16, 1828. Acts, vol. 26, p. 25.]

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That Roswell Elmer, Austin Tyler, Timothy S. Gleason, Ephraim Tyler, James H. Bingham, Samuel Fiske, Godfrey Stevens and Cyrus B. Otis, and their associates and successors, be, and are hereby incorporated and made a body corporate and politic forever, under the name of the Claremont Aqueduct Association, and by that name may sue and prosecute, and be sued and prosecuted to final judgment and execution, and shall be, and hereby are vested with all the powers and privileges, which are by law incident to corporations of a similar nature.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That Roswell Elmer, Austin Tyler and Timothy S. Gleason or any two of them, shall call a meeting of said Association, by posting up a notification at two or more public places in Claremont Village, said meeting to be holden at any suitable time and place after fifteen days from the time of posting up said notification, and the proprietors by a majority of those present or represented at said meeting, accounting and allowing one vote to each share in all cases, shall choose a Clerk, who shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of the duties of said office, and shall agree on a method of calling future meetings and at the same, or at any future meetings, may elect such officers, and make and establish such rules and by laws as to them shall seem necessary and convenient, for the regulating and government of said corporation, for securing, managing and improving the interests thereof, and for carrying into effect the purposes by this act intended, and the same by laws may cause to be executed, and annex penalties to the breach thereof, provided the said rules and by laws are not repugnant to the Constitution and laws of this State. And all representations at any meeting of this Corporation shall be proved by writing signed by the person to be represented, which shall be filed with the Clerk, or recorded in a book or books provided and kept for that purpose.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That the capital stock of said corporation shall be divided into ten shares, and said corporation shall have power to purchase and hold in fee simple or otherwise so much land as may be sufficient to enable them to convey to any part of the Village in said Claremont by means of an aqueduct, the water from any brook, spring or springs of water, upon or in the neighbourhood of the hill southerly of said Claremont village, and not more than one mile from the Congregational Meeting House in said Village, and may purchase the exclusive right of springs within said limits so far as is necessary for the purposes of said aqueduct.

Section 4. And be it further enacted, That said Corporation shall have power to convey the water from any such brook, spring or springs, to said Claremont village, and there distribute the same by means of an aqueduct or cisterns to be by them built for the purpose, provided that the land upon which said aqueducts or cisterns are built is owned by said corporation, or the owners of such land shall consent thereto.

Section 5. And be it further enacted, That the share or shares of any of said proprietors may be transferred by deed, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded by the Clerk of said Proprietors on their records; and the share or shares of any proprietor may be sold by said Corporation on nonpayment of any assessment duly made, agreeably to the by laws that may be agreed on by said Corporation
