satisfaction of the supervisor or supervisors, authorized by law to approve the same, in penalties at least double the amount remaining uncollected, under their respective warrants, within five days after the passage of this act, and shall within the same time respectively pay over to the treasurer of Oswego county all moneys which shall then have been collected by them respectively, the time for the collecting the taxes in said city and making the returns thereof shall be extended to the twentieth day of April next.

§ 2. This extension shall not include the rejected tax of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, nor the return tax of eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, nor the non-resident tax of eighteen hundred and seventy, which shall be returned to the county treasurer before the first day of April, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 60.

AN ACT to amend an act for supplying the village of Plattsburgh with pure and wholesome water, passed April seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

Passed March 2, 1871; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Village trustees, may borrow money for water works.

Issue of village bonds.

SECTION 1. The board of trustees of the village of Plattsburgh are hereby authorized and empowered to raise by loan the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the balance of the liability of said village, incurred in the matter of supplying said village with water, and such additional expense as may be necessary to complete the water-works, and to purchase hose for the fire department of said village. And the said trustees are authorized and empowered to issue the bonds of said village for the repayment of the moneys so to be loaned for the purposes aforesaid, bearing interest not exceeding seven per cent per annum, and which shall be redeemable in not less than ten, nor more than twenty years from and after the passage of this act, and to assess and collect the money to pay the principal and interest of the bonds so to be issued, in the manner provided by the act passed April seventeenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "An act for supplying the village of Plattsburgh with pure and wholesome water," for raising money to pay the interest and principal of the bonds authorized to be issued by said act.

When re-deemable.

§ 2. Section twenty-two of the act for supplying the village of Plattsburgh with pure and wholesome water, passed April seventeenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: The trustees shall also establish a scale of annual rents for protection from fire resulting from said supply of water, to be charged and paid upon all buildings, not otherwise charged, situate within one thousand feet of any village hydrant connected with said water-works; and they may require the rents authorized by this section, to be paid quarterly, and collect the same quarterly, in the manner authorized by section twenty-five of said act.

Scale of rents.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 61.

AN ACT to legalize the acts of Joshua Brown, a justice of the peace, in the county of Tompkins,

Passed March 3, 1871; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All the proceedings which may have been had by and before Joshua Brown, a justice of the peace of the town of Lansing, in the county of Tompkins, since the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, shall be held to be of the same force and validity as if the said Joshua Brown had taken the oath required by law on or before the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and he is hereby authorized to take the oath required by law.
