Chap. 158.

AN ACT in relation to the village of Potsdam.

BECAME a law without the approval of the Governor, in accordance with the provisions of article four, section nine of the Constitution, April 23, 1888. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Appointment of Supt. of water works.

SECTION 1. The Board of Water Commissioners of the village of Potsdam is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint an officer for said village to be designated "the superintendent of water works" who shall hold his office for one year from the time of his appointment, unless sooner removed by the said Board of Water Commissioners, and until his successor is appointed, and who shall be under the control and direction of the said Board of Water Commissioners, and have the custody and management of all the water works of said village; and he shall collect such water rents as shall not have been voluntarily paid to the treasurer of said village pursuant to the regulations of said Board of Water Commissioners; and said superintendent shall within five days after the receipt of any water rents collected by him pay the same to the treasurer of said village. Said superintendent shall inspect, watch, and manage the said water works, and the supply and use of water therefrom, and all other matters and things pertaining thereto, and shall give sufficient surety to be approved by the said Board of Water Commissioners for the proper and faithful performance of his duties, and for the payment to the treasurer of said village of all moneys received by him as such superintendent, the amount of the compensation to be paid to the said superintendent shall be fixed by the said Board of Water Commissioners.

His duties and powers.

Surety, how approved.

Compensation, how fixed.

Repeal.

§ 2. So much of section eight of chapter one hundred and nineteen of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-one entitled "An act to amend the charter of the village of Potsdam" as is inconsistent with section one of this act, is hereby repealed; but no rights acquired under the section so repealed shall in any manner be affected by this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
