

L A W S
OF THE
STATE OF NEW YORK, PASSED AT THE
EIGHTY-EIGHTH SESSION
OF THE LEGISLATURE,

BEGUN JANUARY THIRD, AND ENDED APRIL TWENTY-NINTH, 1865, IN THE CITY OF ALBANY.

ALBANY:
WILLIAM GOULD, LAW BOOKSELLER, 68 STATE STREET.
1865.

Chap. 71.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Syracuse City Water Works Company," passed April fifth, eighteen hundred and forty-nine.

Passed March 3, 1865; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Certain section repealed.

SECTION 1. The twenty-seventh section of chapter two hundred and twenty-four, of the Laws of eighteen hundred and forty-nine, entitled "An act to incorporate the Syracuse City Water Works Company," passed April fifth, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, is hereby repealed.

Certain acts
misdemeanors.

§ 2. Any person who shall maliciously or wilfully interfere with, trespass upon, injure or destroy any of the works, or property of said company, or who shall maliciously or wilfully commit any act which shall injuriously affect or tend thus to affect the water of said company, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Directors may make rules.

§ 3. The directors of said company may establish rules and regulations for and concerning the conduct of all such persons as shall take or use the water from their works, so far as respects the preservation, use or waste thereof, may thereby impose such penalties and forfeitures for the violation of such rules and regulation, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State, as they shall deem proper, not exceeding fifty dollars in any case, which penalty or penalties may be recovered before any justice of the peace of said city, with costs in the name of said company.

Penalty for violation of rules.

Rules to be published.

Such rules and regulations shall be published for three weeks successively, in two newspapers published in said city, and a copy of the same certified by the president or secretary of said company, with affidavits of the publication of the same, made by any one of the publishers of said papers, or by a foreman in their offices, shall be received as evidence in all courts and places.

§ 4. The fifteenth section of said act, and the first section of the act, chapter sixteen, of the Laws of eighteen hundred and fifty-five, passed February sixth, in that year, are hereby repealed.

Sections repealed.

§ 5: This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 72.

AN ACT to authorize Justices of the Peace of the county of Orleans to sentence persons convicted of certain offenses to the Monroe county penitentiary.

Passed March 3, 1865; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. When any person charged with the commission of any of the acts or offenses enumerated in the first section of chapter twenty, title five, volume one of the Revised Statutes, shall be brought before any justice of the peace of the county of Orleans, such justice shall, upon conviction of such offender, have power to punish by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 2. Upon the conviction of any person of any of the offenses enumerated in said section one, chapter twenty, title five, volume one of the Revised Statutes, before any justice of said county of Orleans, upon sentence of imprisonment, said justice shall have the power, and is hereby authorized to send the person so convicted and sentenced directly to the penitentiary of Monroe county.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
