PASSED April 14, 1881; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter one hundred and four of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, entitled "An act to authorize the treasurer of Monroe county to sell property for unpaid taxes," is hereby amended by adding thereto, at the end thereof, two sections as follows:

§ 26. If the taxes on any farm, lot or parcel of land, levied by the board of supervisors of Monroe county, have been or shall be returned as unpaid, and any of such taxes have been or shall have been assessed on lands so imperfectly described that the same cannot, in the opinion of the treasurer of Monroe county, be located with certainty, he shall report the same to the assessors of the several towns and of the city of Rochester, in which such taxes were assessed, respectively, with the amount of the tax, interest and charges, in arrear, in each year. And it shall be the duty of the assessors receiving such report to enter or cause to be entered upon the next assessment-roll thereafter of the town or ward, as the case may be, an accurate description of such lands, with or without the name of the owner or occupant, and with the said amount of the taxes, charges and interest chargeable thereon, in arrear, stating the tax of each year separately, to be collected in like manner with the other taxes of that year; and such taxes, charges and interest shall for all the purposes of this act, and for the purpose of enforcement and collection, be subject to the same proceedings as the taxes of the year in which the perfected description of the land shall be entered on the assessment-roll. This section shall apply to lands heretofore sold for unpaid taxes by the treasurer of Monroe county, and which have not been redeemed. Hereafter it shall not be necessary for such treasurer to sell any land so imperfectly described as aforesaid.

Taxes returned unpaid on lands imperfectly described to be reported to assessors.

To be entered on next roll with perfect description, etc.

Act to apply to lands heretofore sold and not redeemed.

§ 27. If such imperfectly described land shall not, in any case, be accurately entered upon the proper assessment-roll, as above provided, the amount of the taxes, interest and charges thereon, in arrear, shall be, by the board of supervisors of the county, levied and assessed upon the town or city in which the assessment was originally made.

Tax to be levied on town or city.
