office until the next annual election; which directors, or their successors in office, when authorized for that purpose by the stockholders at any general meeting, may, at any time, by giving ten days' notice thereof in two newspapers printed in said city, cause the subscription books of said company to be re-opened for such further amount of the capital stock as they may deem proper; and if at any time, more than fifteen thousand shares shall be subscribed for, including what may have been previously subscribed, the same shall be apportioned among those applicants for said stock whose subscriptions are for the greatest number of shares.

Sec. 10. That the payments of said stock shall be made and completed by the subscribers, respectively, at the times and in the manner following, to wit: at the time of subscribing, there shall be paid on each share one dollar; immediately after the first election of directors, and before the company shall go into operation, there shall be paid on each share the further sum of two dollars; and the balance due on each share shall be subject to the call of the directors; and the said company shall not be authorized to make any policy or contract of insurance with any person as insured, until the whole amount of shares subscribed for shall be paid, or satisfactorily secured to be paid, on demand, by endorsed notes, hypothecated stocks, or other property.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be taken and received in all courts, and by all judges, magistrates, and other public officers as a public act, and all printed copies of the same which may be printed by or under the authority of the General Assembly, shall be admitted as good evidence thereof, without any other proof whatever.
