MERICAN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

The American Fire Insurance Company, on August 15, 1854, were incorporated, under the laws of the State of New York, for the purpose of insuring against loss by fire. The capital stock is divided into 1,000 shares of $1,000 each. The company is located at No. 111 Chambers Street, New York.

A report of the company's affairs for the year ending December 31, 1854, was made by the directors, and includes a list of the officers and directors, with their addresses, and a statement of the company's financial position. The report also includes a statement of the company's losses and expenses for the year, and a statement of the company's surplus.

The company's losses for the year were $47,500, which included losses in New York City of $40,000, and losses in other parts of the country of $7,500. The company's expenses for the year were $2,500, which included expenses in New York City of $2,000, and expenses in other parts of the country of $500.

The company's surplus at the end of the year was $100,000, which includes a surplus of $75,000 in New York City, and a surplus of $25,000 in other parts of the country.

The company's officers for the year were:

Chairman: W. H. Macy

Vice-Chairman: J. H. McClellan

Secretary: J. H. McClellan

Treasurer: W. H. Macy

The company's directors for the year were:

W. H. Macy

J. H. McClellan

W. H. Macy

J. H. McClellan

The company's losses and expenses for the year, and its financial position, are a matter of public record, and can be obtained by writing to the company's agents, located at No. 111 Chambers Street, New York.