No. 541.

A N A C T

To authorize the Executors of Daniel Stine, deceased, to convey certain Real Estate.

WHEREAS, Daniel Stine, late of Jackson township, Lebanon county, now deceased, was in his lifetime in partnership with Doctor George N. Eckert, and as such co-partners, they held as tenants in common, certain real estate in the county of Lancaster, part of which consisting of a certain tract of land and iron works, known as Donegal furnace, was held in the name of the said partnership, and part consisting of the equal undivided half and the equal undivided eighth part of certain ore lands hereinafter mentioned, was held in the name of the said George N. Eckert, but for the benefit of the said partnership: Preamble.

And whereas, The said Daniel Stine, by his will duly proved and entered in the register's office at Lebanon, did order and direct that his interest in the said Donegal furnace and ore lands should be continued and carried on by A. G. Stine, one of his executors therein named, until such time as his son John D. Stine should or would have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, when the said executorship should devolve upon the said John D. Stine and Malinda B. Stine, who were further empowered and directed to sell at public sale, within six months thereafter, all
