Eminent Wacoan Claimed by Death In His 90th Year

C. W. White, Active in City's Civic Affairs for Many Years, Succumbs Tuesday Night.

C. W. White, 90, last survivor of the first cavalry company organized by Gen. J. E. B. Stuart during the Civil war, died at his residence, 1801 Colonial avenue, at 8 p. m. Tuesday. Funeral services will be held from Compton's chapel at 10 a. m. Thursday, Rev. J. P. Love of Cameron officiating. Interment will be in Oakwood cemetery. Pallbearers will be C. M. Seley, Ira Seley, W. H. Talley, Dr. W. C. Bidelspach, E. S. Thorp, Richard Harrison. Honorary pallbearers will be all members of Pat Cleburne camp, Confederate Veterans, of which he was commander at the time of his death.

Mr. White was born in Amherst, Va., Nov. 15, 1844. He came to Texas soon after the Civil war. About 50 years ago he built the first waterworks plant erected in Waco and owned the plant for several years.

Surviving are one son, M. B. White of Groesbeck; two daughters, Mrs. Ed C. Talley of Waco and Miss Medina White of Waco; one brother, Marion White of Tishomingo, Okla.; one sister, Mrs. Rose Matthias of Los Angeles.