issue a citation to all persons interested in such lands, giving at least twelve days notice of the time and place of hearing before said judges, to appear and show cause, if any, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted; and said judge, on such hearing, may appoint three disinterested persons to appraise the damages sustained by such owner or occupant of such lands; and said committee, before proceeding to appraise such damage, shall give reasonable notice to all persons interested in such lands, claiming damage, and to said corporation, of the time and place of hearing on such damages. And said committee on such hearing shall assess such damages to the owners or occupants of such lands, as shall be just and equitable, and make report of the same to the county court, for the county of Rutland, at its first session thereafter. And if the report of said committee shall be accepted upon hearing, said court may render judgment thereon for such damages and costs, as said court shall deem just and equitable, and issue execution for the same.

SEC. 5. This act shall be subject to the provisions of chapter eighty-six of the General Statutes, entitled "Of private corporations," and may be amended, altered or repealed, as the public good may require.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect from its passage.

Approved, November 9, 1865.
