It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, as follows:

SEC. 1. Isaac N. Cushman, A. A. Earle, Leavitt Bartlett, Joseph S. Kellum and R. W. Nye, and their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of the Irasburgh Aqueduct Company, with powers incident to corporations, and may hold real and personal estate, not exceeding five thousand dollars in value, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining an aqueduct for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants of the village of Irasburgh, in the county of Orleans, with pure water.

SEC. 2. The first meeting of said corporation may be called by either of the persons above named, at any time within one year from the passage of this act, by giving personal notice of the time and place to all of the others, at least six days previous to said meeting ; and the said corporation may, at this and at all subsequent meetings legally notified, make, alter or repeal such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be thought necessary, and not repugnant to the laws of this state ; and said corporation may divide their stock into as many shares, and provide for the mode of sale and transfer thereof, as such corporation may from time to time deem expedient, and may levy and collect assessments on said shares according to law ; and if the indebtedness of said corporation shall at any time exceed three-fourths of the capital stock actually paid in, the directors and stockholders shall be personally liable for said excess.

SEC. 3. The said corporation are hereby empowered to take of the waters of such fountains, springs and streams issuing therefrom, as they may purchase of the owners thereof for that purpose, and not otherwise, and not to alter, change or convert any existing rights or possessions of such owner without grant or compensation therefor.

SEC. 4. Said corporation may dig up and open any street, common or highway in the town of Irasburgh necessary for constructing reservoirs and laying said aqueduct, or for repairing the same : Provided, the same be done in such a manner as not to prevent the convenient passage of teams and carriages, and so as not to disfigure said common or highway.

SEC. 5. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon and use any land through which it may be necessary for said aqueduct to pass, on the most direct and practicable route from whence said water may be taken, to the street, highway or place through which the same is to be conveyed, for the purpose of placing said reservoirs, conduits or pipes as may be necessary for the constructing and repairing said aqueduct, by agreeing with the owners of said land for the use or the damage of the same, and paying such sum or sums as agreed upon.

SEC. 6. This act shall be under the control of any future legislature, to alter, amend or repeal, and shall take effect from its passage.

Approved November 26, 1860.
