

—We are informed that W. C. Weir, the chief engineer of the water-works construction last summer, is at Hot Springs, Arkansas, under medical treatment for hemorrhage of the lungs. He has had several attacks and is in a critical condition.

---